Juventus vs sassuolo match report

The goals of Alvaro Morata and Juan Cuadrado, both sides of the time, helped Juventus win 2-0 in Bologna in a thick fog on Saturday to lift the Turinese club to sixth place in Serie A. Morata fired the first time after six minutes to put the visitors in front, but they were the second best for most of the game, as Bologna dictated the time - ESPN FC 100: The best players and managers of 2021 - Notebook: The internal stories of soccerSiniša Mihajlović could not make their possession count, however, and the Colombian defender Cuadrado punished them when his deflected strike flew into the upper half corner of the second "As we always say, we need to focus only on ourselves. When you play with the attitude we had tonight, you get results", Juventus defenseman Leonardo Bonucci told DAZN. "We can't afford to lose ground right now, and every win is important." Massimiliano Allegri's side moved up sixth on 31 points, level with AS Roma and five behind Napoli in fourth position, facing AC Milan on Sunday. Bologna remained tenth with 24 points. Juve was under pressure to give three points after being held to a draw by the fighters of the Venetian relegation last weekend, continuing a theme of dropping points against the sides of the bottom table this season. Allegri spoke prematch about the need to be more clinical, and Spain's Morata International responded to that plea bargain when the chance arrived. Bologna, through a ball that sent the opening goal early. By that point, the hosts had been too comfortable with the ball, kind of Matheus Cunha, who flew narrow and the fierce shot of Nicolás Domínguez was beaten. Spain's Ceballos came to the rescue to give the visitors a cushion, throwing a shot in the upper corner from the edge of the box that found a deflection outside the defender Aaron Hickey's back. The comfort of a cushion with his thoughts seemed to instill confidence in the Old Lady during the next phase as Bernardeschi had a good opportunity after overtaking a corner that seemed destined to score before Morata scored four minutes after scoring the much-needed 2-0 win for Juventus, who took Salernitana to Serie A on Tuesday and relieved the pressure on the Turinese.Paulo Dybala fired Juve ahead of Sal in the first half, but Liermitana was a few inches from an equalizer when Luca Raniere hit the pole after the break. ESPN+ Audience Guide: LaLiga, Bundesliga, MLS, FA Cup, moreWith the home team on the rise, Morata stepped off the bench and doubled his team's lead by skilfully throwing a cross between the goalkeeper's legs in the 70th minute. Juventus gave so much to all of us and there are moments in life when it's time to give it back. Now we have to stay close to this club, and we will come out together", said Juve captain Giorgio Chiellini at the end of the game.Juventus remains seventh with 24 points out of 15 games, 7 drifting from the top four and 11 behind Napoli, while Salernitana is at the bottom with 8 points. Dybala looked lively from the start, put the goalkeeper Vito Belotti to the test and opened the goal after 21 minutes by throwing an arrow down.Juve had almost a second before the break, but Chiellini's effort was canceled by outplay in the bottom. Salernitana started the second fastest time, but rejected a great opportunity when Raniere was. The nerves of the visitors calmed down after Morata skillfully diverted a low cross between Belotti's legs to the front pole with a shot of the boot. Max Allegri had the best chance of getting late, with Belotti denying Dybala on one before the Argentine International slipped with a final penalty. Will Juventus fight without Weston McKennie and Federico Chiesa? Janusz Michalik explains how the absence of Weston McKennie and Federico Chiesa could have damaged Juventus. (0:56) Juventus suffered another arrest for 1-0 at home against Atalanta after a goal by Duvan Zapata on Saturday. Fifth loss in the 14th Series A, which left them in the eighth place. Weston McKennie of the USM also left the field immediately after the summer with an accident. The hosts struggled to create notable openings in the first half, with a defense not up to the required level, leaving Zapata free to shoot at home at 28th minute. of an answer to the chase of an equalizer, with the late free kick of Paul Dybala who cut the cross closer to a leveler. Stream ESPN FC Daily on ESPN+ (USA only) ESPN+ guide for the viewer: Bundesliga, Serie A, MLS, FA Cup and more. Atalanta has held her race against eight games in all competitions in order to remain fourth on 28 points, four points behind Naples and seven points in front of Juve which is at eleven points. The first Atalanta victory at Juventus from 1989's. Atalanta did little at the door. The only shot was taken by Zapata by our mistake."Juve Massimiliano Allegri's coach told DAZN. The only thing we have to do is work, as we have always done, and try to win a game." The Juve entered the match after the heaviest loss of all competitions since 2004'0-0 in the Chelsea Champions League. After the hosts have given the ball once again, a simple passage of Berat Djimsite has too easily cut the Juve backline too easily, with Zapata that marks for the seventh consecutive game in all the ATALANTA races with an emphatic ending. Emilio Andreoli / Getty Images. "So many times we recently sold in the final stages, so it's a big step forward for us to win and keep a clean card in a game like this", said Zapata in Dazn. A difficult championship. There are many different types of games. It was important to keep the field clean against a strong team like Juve and atalanta did not win here in Serie A for many years. From a good position on the edge of the penalty area. After the pause, the atalanta seemed glad to get back into the head, with Juventus in place. McKennie seemed to have put into place for the equalizer but was denied by a block of the last ditch, while the replacement Federico Bernardeschi pulled wide. The home team raised late mail with Dybala who believed he had torn A late point, but the ball cut the bar and ripped up while the moans turned around again around Juventus Stadium. Again.
